Snowdrops

Dear Friends,

As I stood at my kitchen window the other day, I saw something white among the green leaves. I went out to look and saw the bud of a snowdrop. It brought a smile to my face as, to me, it is one of the symbols of hope that we all need at the moment.

It also made me wonder about the symbolism of the snowdrop, so I turned to my computer. I read that, according to legend, the snowdrop first became a symbol of hope when Adam and Eve were expelled from the Garden of Eden. It is said that, when Eve was about to give up hope that the cold winters would never end, an angel appeared and transformed some of the snowflakes into snowdrops.

We are all feeling that this pandemic is never going to end, but there is hope, hope in the skill of the scientists who have produced the vaccines to fight Covid 19.

Snowdrops are also known as 'Candlemas bells' as they are one of the first flowers to bloom, signifying the arrival of Spring. Often the first time we see snowdrops is as the snow is melting.

Candles are lit during a Candlemas service, (around 2nd February) reminding us that Jesus came to be the light of the world. It is the light of Christ that brings us hope for each new day, if we trust each day to Him.

With all good wishes for 2021

Judith Hewitt, Reader

Loving your neighbour

When my religion tries to come between me and my neighbour,
I will choose my neighbour.
Jesus never commanded me to love my religion.

Barbara Brown Taylor

Friends,

When writing my letter each month I'm inclined to keep things broad – not too religious, political, personal or fluffy. Whilst I am mindful that the Christian faith has been a dominant force in shaping our laws, language and culture, it is not necessarily professed by all readers. Some denominational clergy roles are explicitly congregational chaplains, but a Church of England vicar is priest to the whole community, without exception – whether one is a joiner, Jewish or Jedi. It's a thing of wonder about the good old CofE, and so I try to write something that can be approached by all. So please excuse me whilst I rant about my loathing for politicised religion in America, and what that might have to say to us.

Over recent months and years we have seen in the U.S.A. what happens when politics and religion are mixed in partisan and divisive ways. White conservative evangelicalism has allied itself, or allowed itself to be hijacked, in ways that have amputated its own moral platform, and from which it may never recover. "Jesus, Jesus" they cry, as many of them have also chanted "Trump, Trump", and waved a bible around in the same way that one might place a full stop at the end of an argument. Maybe "Jesus" should never be the chant of the religious, but rather "justice, justice". I find it impossible to understand why the 'sanctity of life' argument seems not to extend to the Black Lives Matter movement, those on death row, or poor children without adequate health care provision.

Barbara Brown Taylor's words challenge me to the core through their simple truth. The bible says nothing of abortion or gay marriage or gun ownership (which is not to say that the scriptural tradition, of which we are all heirs – like it or not – does not speak into the full breadth of our contemporary concerns), or other matters that predominate in the culture wars of North America, however much some religious leaders spout that 'The bible teaches...' But the Good Book is replete with references to the requirement for justice and equity, concern for the vulnerable and the alien (read 'immigrant'), and care for our neighbour.

To be clear (and this is entirely the point of Jesus' story about the Good Samaritan – a phrase we still hear often in popular culture), our neighbour is not the person who lives in our street or our village, the person who looks and sounds like us. Our neighbour is anyone who needs us, and anyone whom we need.

So be suspicious of anyone who professes a faith that divides neighbours. In this time of covid-anxiety and social-distancing, neighbours are sacred, and neighbourliness is moral duty. This is not about partisan religiosity, or religion in particular. It is about being human on the side of good.

CHURCH NEWS & EVENTS

Sundays online

Our weekly online Sunday worship is continuing, with a service of the Word, with songs and prayers, posted on our YouTube channel each Sunday and remaining available thereafter.

The services are normally shared on the channel the day beforehand. Many of us worship 'together' at 10.30am on a Sunday morning, using the video service prepared for that day, but you can watch them anytime!

<https://tinyurl.com/y28h5aec> (or search YouTube for 'St Nicholas Church').

To be added to the list of people who receive a weekly email invitation to the service when it goes live, please email Nick Bird on revnickbird@gmail.com

Phone

Know someone without internet access? They can listen to the audio version of the weekly service by phone at any point during the week. It's the cost of a local call and very simple to do - just dial 899433.

Coffee and chat

Do join us for a catch up over Zoom at 11.30 each Sunday, once people have had a chance to participate in the service

<https://tinyurl.com/y2h1hgvs>

Weekday Worship via Zoom

During the period of lockdown we are not having any services in our church buildings, but there is live worship over zoom:

LIVE worship via Zoom <https://tinyurl.com/y2whk8c9>

Compline (Night Prayer)

Every Wednesday at 7.00pm

Monthly Prayer Meeting

Revd Mark Poole invites you to join him for an informal time of prayer via Zoom. The next meeting is on Monday 15th February.

Each session lasts about an hour, commencing at 7:00pm, and is an opportunity to pray for the needs of our communities, our nation and our world especially during these difficult times. It is also an opportunity for us to pray for God's mission in our villages as we seek to serve in His Kingdom.

You are very welcome to join us. If you know anyone else who worships elsewhere and who may like to join us then please let them know the dates and forward the Zoom link so they can join us.

The Zoom invitations are sent out a few days prior to each evening. Please email Revd Mark Poole revmarkpoole20@gmail.com to receive an invitation.

The Children's Society

We have received a letter of thanks from The Children's Society for the £165.00 we collected for them as part of our Christingle celebrations and we know that some people have also made donations directly to the Society.

Thank you to everyone who gave.

The Society says: It's thanks to the money raised in churches and congregations like yours that we are able to transform the hopes and happiness of thousands of children in this country who face abuse, exploitation and neglect and bring the full light of Christingle into their lives.

The impact we can have on a young person's life is all driven by you – our volunteers, supporters and campaigners. When you attend a Christingle and support The Children's Society you are helping us to fight for the hope that is within all children.

You can read more about the impact your support has here - childrenssociety.org.uk/impact.

Thank you once again for helping to make sure that children in this country can look forward to a hope filled, brighter future.

IDAS (Women's Refuge)

About £400 in supermarket vouchers was taken to the IDAS offices in time for the women to buy gifts and items to help them celebrate Christmas. We have received a 'thank you' letter from IDAS.

One Family!

In Autumn 2020 the York Methodist Circuit family and youth team introduced One Family! It is a venture where families from across the York Methodist Circuit can come together on-line, with families from the Goole and Selby Circuit (and anyone else who would like to take part) to worship, learn more about Jesus and enjoy spending time together as one big family.

It is a relaxed, informal style of church for families with primary school aged children, although of course younger and older children are very welcome too. There are opportunities to enjoy Bible stories, songs, games, crafts, baking and other activities all together, as well as to share experiences and make friends in smaller breakout rooms.

We meet monthly via Zoom on the 2nd Tuesday of the month from 6pm for about an hour.

Please note that One Family is intended for families, and for safeguarding reasons, children cannot attend the live session unless an adult is visible on screen.

What is it?

- RELAXED, FRIENDLY, INTERACTIVE CHURCH FOR FAMILIES
- JOIN US VIA ZOOM FROM THE COMFORT OF YOUR OWN HOME
- BIBLE STORIES, CRAFTS, BAKING, GAMES, INTERACTIVE PRAYER, SONGS, DISCUSSION IN BREAKOUT ROOMS
- OPPORTUNITY TO GET TO KNOW OTHER FAMILIES

Who is it for?

THE WHOLE FAMILY, PARTICULARLY THOSE WITH CHILDREN AGED 5-11 (CHILDREN SHOULD BE ACCOMPANIED BY AN ADULT WHO IS VISIBLE ON SCREEN)

When is it?

2ND TUESDAY OF THE MONTH STARTING ON 13TH OCTOBER
5PM - 6PM
ALSO AVAILABLE ON YOUTUBE ON THE 3RD SUNDAY OF THE MONTH

“The Fallen” - Remembered

The Bomber Crash at Holtby (part 4). The seven RAF aircrew members who all died in this incident on 8 Sep 1942 were, like many others, brave young men flying in aircraft built only for a deadly purpose in war, and were exposed to lethal risk on every flight. Their homes were not in this village, but it was here they fell. The last three of the seven are named below.

One of two Wireless Operator/Air Gunners on board was 1256530 Sgt Laurence George Harvey, age 22. He was a Londoner, born on 8 Apr 1920 in Hackney, and apparently known as 'Laurie'. His parents were George Alfred Harvey, an electrical cable joiner in the Post Office engineer department, and Daisy Maude (Watts), a confectioner, who had married in South Hackney Church in 1919.

Laurie joined the RAF Volunteer Reserve, and sometime in 1940/41 enlisted for war service. His family chose to have the burial at Eastbrookend Cemetery in Dagenham, Essex, where his grave is marked by a private family headstone. One of Laurie's two siblings was Barbara Rosemary, who married John Clifford and died in 1993.

1182739 Flight Sgt Ronald Leonard Stevens, age 20, was another Wireless Operator/Air Gunner on bomber W1228. He was born in 1921 in the Lambeth district of London, to William Joseph Stevens and his wife Florence Maud (Huggins). About 1940/41, having joined the RAF Volunteer Reserve, he enlisted at Cardington for war service.

Ronald's parents were in Morden when he died, and his war grave is in Morden Cemetery. The epitaph chosen by his parents for the headstone reads: "He like others his life did give; the price of freedom that we might live."

The flight engineer on board W1228 was 536790 Sgt John Taylor, age 26. He seems to have been appointed a Class F Reservist for the RAF before war-time service, but I have so far been unsuccessful in tracing further details and family origin.

John's grave is in the war cemetery section of St Catherine's Churchyard at Barmby Moor.
