Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. The week began on 18th January and ends on 26th It is a week when Christians gather together and pray, as Jesus prayed that we may all be one. Each year Christians from a different part of the world choose a theme and offer prayers and reflections that speak from their context. This year the form of prayers is the gift of the churches of the West African nation of Burkina Faso. More information, with daily readings and prayers is available from <https://cte.org.uk/wpcu2024>
